

ILLINOIS COMMUNITY COLLEGE BOARD

The Illinois Community College Board is a state coordinating agency for the Illinois Community College System and the Adult Education System.

The Board administrative offices are located in Springfield and Chicago. The Board is seeking applicants for open positions in the Springfield office for Information Technology Applications Programmers.

Application, job description, education, and experience requirements can be found at <https://www.iccb.org/iccb/about-us-2/employment-opportunities/>

No faxed or emailed applications will be accepted.